CASE STUDY

STIMA SACCO- was in search of a vendor who could solve their document management problem and implement an electronic document management system with the archiving/content management solution only being featured in the first phase and the planned for the second phase of the project. Description of Actual Services Provided by Your Staff: Through training and consultation Stima Sacco they procured the system on a phased off method through a complete bidding and COSEKE

With its rich in records management and EDMS and BPMS got all the tenders to implement.1st was records manager training which was award to COSEKE. With high level tutorials on record management and our proposal we meet the needs for Stima Sacco and won from our competitors.2nd was the document management system. Through our proposal it was easy to seamlessly integrated in to Stima network and server infrastructure. The need for more server resource
